Cyberport Enterprise Mech-Mind Robotics Succeeded in HKEX Listing

Global Expansion of "Eye-Brain-Hand" Robotics Innovation to Empower Extensive Industries with Advanced Embodied Intelligence

Hong Kong, 1 September 2026 – Cyberport warmly congratulates its community enterprise, Mech-Mind Robotics Technologies Co., Ltd. ("Mech-Mind", Stock Code: 09615.HK), on its successful listing today on Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited (HKEX), marking the debut of the "first listed company specialising in eye-brain-hand embodied intelligence". As a global leader in embodied intelligence robotics core components, Mech-Mind specialises in providing standardised universal modules for intelligent robots' "eye-brain-hand" systems. Leveraging Cyberport's vibrant ecosystem, Mech-Mind will advance three strategic deployments: accelerating large-scale applications of its "eye-brain-hand" solutions in Hong Kong's manufacturing, logistics, public administration, and education sectors; using Hong Kong as a springboard to go global, connecting with hubs in Munich, Chicago, Seoul, Tokyo, and 16 global business centres; and further strengthening its Hong Kong base and ecosystem partnerships to consolidate its global leadership position.

Dr Rocky Cheng, CEO of Cyberport, said, "Cyberport sincerely congratulates Mech-Mind on its successful HKEX listing, underscoring Hong Kong's role as a global fundraising hub. Since landing at Cyberport, Mech-Mind has leveraged our springboard for Mainland enterprises to 'go global,' expanding its Hong Kong presence and rapidly growing its international business. Through Cyberport's international innovation ecosystem, Mech-Mind has collaborated with local and overseas clients, driving the application of its 'eye-brain-hand' robotics solutions in Hong Kong and adapting to global application scenarios. Its products now reach nearly 50 countries and regions, serving over 100 Fortune Global 500 companies. Cyberport will continue to fully support Mech-Mind in expanding its global footprint, leading embodied intelligence innovation, and empowering industry-wide smart upgrades."

Shao Tianlan, Founder, Chairperson and CEO of Mech-Mind, said, "We are grateful to Cyberport and the Hong Kong community for their support. Hong Kong is a vital gateway to global customers. Since our establishment on campus, Cyberport has provided us with strong support in industry connections, resources, and ecosystem integration, helping us quickly integrate into Hong Kong and the Greater Bay Area innovation landscape. This HKEX listing marks a new chapter for our company. We will continue to refine the core capabilities of embodied intelligent robots' 'eye-brain-hand' systems, using Hong Kong as a base to go global, while contributing to Hong Kong's innovation and technology (I&T) ecosystem and smart manufacturing upgrade."

Founded in 2016, Mech-Mind, meaning “the brain of robots”, provides standardised universal “eye-brain-hand” modules for intelligent robots. Over 29,000 product units have been deployed worldwide. Its products reach nearly 50 countries and regions, across over 50 scenarios in dozens of industries, handling more than 100,000 types of goods. Clients include leading companies in automotive, new energy, consumer electronics, and logistics, with over 100 Fortune Global 500 enterprises served. As a global leader in embodied intelligence robotics core components, Mech-Mind achieved overseas revenue at a three-year compound growth rate of 82.7%, with overseas revenue exceeding 50% in 2025.

Cyberport, as Hong Kong’s digital technology hub and AI accelerator, houses over 2,400 tech companies, including 30 listed firms and 10 unicorns, with more than 500 leading enterprises and start-ups specialising in AI, data science, and robotics. It has built a thriving embodied intelligence ecosystem, driving research and development, and application in core areas such as robotic perception, AI decision-making, and control. Cyberport also leverages Hong Kong’s unique role as a “super value-adder” and “super connector,” aligning with the Government strategies to attract over 30 strategic enterprises from the Mainland and overseas, supporting local and Mainland companies to expand into more than 35 countries, and helping overseas firms enter the Mainland market. Cyberport will continue to strengthen Hong Kong’s position as an international innovation and AI hub, gathering global enterprises and resources to develop the city into an international I&T and AI hub.

About Hong Kong Cyberport

Wholly owned by the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government, Cyberport is Hong Kong's digital tech hub and AI accelerator, with a vision to empower industry digitalisation and intelligent transformation, to promote digital economy and AI development, and to foster Hong Kong to be an international AI, innovation and technology (I&T) hub. Cyberport gathers over 2,400 companies, including 30 listed companies and 10 unicorns. One-third of onsite companies' founders come from 28 countries and regions, while Cyberport companies have expanded to over 35 global markets.

Cyberport, with Hong Kong's largest AI Supercomputing Centre and AI Lab as the engine, has been building the AI ecosystem with industry-leading AI companies and over 500 AI and data science start-ups. Through development of tech clusters, namely AI, data science, blockchain and cybersecurity, Cyberport empowers industries across smart city and government, banking and finance, digital entertainment, culture and tourism, healthcare, education and training, property management, construction, transportation and logistics, green environment and more, while hosting Hong Kong's largest FinTech community. Commissioned by the HKSAR Government, Cyberport has implemented proof-of-concept and sandbox schemes, subsidisation for digital tech adoption, industry tech training and start-up incubation, to drive technology R&D, translation and commercialisation, thus propelling digital transformation and intelligent upgrade across industry and society.

Also as "State-level Scientific and Technological Enterprise Incubator" and Hong Kong's key incubator, Cyberport supports entrepreneurs with funding and office space, extensive networks of enterprises, investors, technology corporations and professional services for business growth and expansion to Chinese Mainland and overseas markets, all-round facilitation for landing in Hong Kong, talent attraction and cultivation, ready as a launchpad to take start-ups in any stages of development to the next level.
