Cyberport and Taiping Financial Holdings Launch "Taiping Cyberport Inno-Tech Fund" to Channel Market Capital into High-Potential Enterprises & Drive the Development of Strategic Emerging Technology Industries

Hong Kong, 3 August 2026 – Hong Kong Cyberport Management Company Limited (Cyberport) and Taiping Financial Holdings Company Limited (TPFH) today announced the establishment of a strategic partnership to jointly launch the "Taiping Cyberport Inno-Tech Fund". Initiated by TPFH, the fund is co-managed by Taiping Assets Management (HK) Company Limited and BOCOM International Asset Management Limited (BOCOM International). It focuses on investing in strategic tech enterprises with high-growth potential, supporting their ongoing commercialisation of research outcomes and business development, thereby fostering the sustainable development of the innovation and technology (I&T) industry ecosystem in Hong Kong.

To mark the occasion, Cyberport and TPFH held a strategic cooperation signing ceremony for the fund. Witnessed by Simon Chan, Chairman of Cyberport, Ma Yong, General Manager of TPFH, Johnny Chan, Chief Investment Officer of Cyberport and Chen Xiao, Assistant General Manager of TPFH, the agreement was signed by Dr Rocky Cheng, CEO of Cyberport and Lyu Liufeng, Chief Investment Officer of Alternative Investments of TPFH. This signifies a new chapter of cross-sector collaboration between Hong Kong's financial industry and I&T ecosystem, underscoring the city's unique status as both an international financial centre and an international I&T hub.

Simon Chan, Chairman of Cyberport, said, "In alignment with the nation's 'Patient Capital' development strategy, Cyberport is delighted to join hands with TPFH and BOCOM International to provide robust capital support for high-potential I&T enterprises and strategic emerging industries. As Hong Kong's leading entrepreneurship incubator, Cyberport is home to more than 2,400 technology companies and startups, including 29 listed companies. We have continued to support their fundraising efforts, helping them secure cumulative funding exceeding HK$67.6 billion (exceeding US$8.6 billion). Over the years, the Cyberport Macro Fund has played a catalytic role in attracting private capital, achieving a co-investment leverage ratio of 1:9. Meanwhile, the Cyberport Investors Network has facilitated over HK$4.2 billion (approximately US$540 million) in funding, underscoring Cyberport's capability to connect startups with capital markets and reflecting strong investor confidence in the innovation capabilities of our community. Through this strategic collaboration, we look forward to further harnessing the synergy between finance and innovation and technology, directing market capital more effectively to empower technology startups, while accelerating the growth of strategic and future industries."

Ma Yong, General Manager of Taiping Financial Holdings Company Limited, said, "As the state-owned financial enterprise whose headquarter based in Hong Kong, China Taiping Insurance Group has always fulfilled its mission of serving the nation's strategies. TPFH serves as China Taiping Insurance Group's offshore integrated investment platform. It remains firmly rooted in Hong Kong, cultivating strong local ties and maintaining close collaboration with universities and research institutions. We support Hong Kong's new industrial pattern of 'South-North dual engine (finance-I&T)'. Today's strategic partnership with Cyberport through the fund represents a major step toward supporting the city's development as an international I&T hub. We will fully leverage China Taiping Insurance's capital advantages and ecosystem resources, draw on BOCOM International's investment banking and asset management expertise and capital market network, and combine these with Cyberport's I&T ecosystem. By joining forces and complementing strengths, we aim to deploy patient capital to precisely empower high-growth technology enterprises, inject new momentum into the sustainable development of Hong Kong's I&T ecosystem, and help consolidate the city's dual status as an international financial centre and an international I&T hub."

TPFH is China Taiping Insurance Group's offshore integrated investment platform, with core businesses in offshore insurance asset management. The company holds licences for investment management, financial lending, trust services, securities brokerage, QFII, and QDII. As a state-owned enterprise in Hong Kong, TPFH is committed to strengthening Hong Kong's position as an international financial centre, participating in cross-boundary investment in the GBA, and contributing to the Group's "Insurance + Tech" ecosystem.

BOCOM International Holdings Company Limited, the integrated financial services platform of BOCOM, is one of the earliest licensed securities firms with the Mainland background in Hong Kong. It is a securities firm specialising in securities brokerage and margin financing, corporate finance and underwriting, investment and loans, asset management and advisory businesses.

TPFH and BOCOM International jointly initiated the "Victoria Harbour Nexus Innovation Fund," which was successfully selected in the Hong Kong Innovation and Technology Venture Fund Enhanced Scheme introduced by the Innovation and Technology Commission. The fund will support Hong Kong's development as an international I&T hub and provide strong backing for the I&T ecosystem.

As Hong Kong's digital technology hub and AI accelerator, Cyberport is dedicated to nurturing I&T talent and incubating start-ups. It provides comprehensive support for research and development, commercialisation of research outcomes, and the acceleration of digital transformation and smart upgrades across industries. The launch of Taiping Cyberport Inno-

Tech Fund by Cyberport, TPFH, and BOCOM International marks an important step in deepening cooperation between the financial and technology sectors. Going forward, Cyberport will continue to provide comprehensive support for start-ups at different stages of development, driving Hong Kong to become an international I&T hub.

About Hong Kong Cyberport

Wholly owned by the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government, Cyberport is Hong Kong's digital tech hub and AI accelerator, with a vision to empower industry digitalisation and intelligent transformation, to promote digital economy and AI development, and to foster Hong Kong to be an international AI, innovation and technology (I&T) hub. Cyberport gathers over 2,400 companies, including 29 listed companies and 10 unicorns. Over 40% of onsite companies' founders come from 28 countries and regions, while Cyberport companies have expanded to over 35 global markets.

Cyberport, with Hong Kong's largest AI Supercomputing Centre and AI Lab as the engine, has been building the AI ecosystem with industry-leading AI companies and over 500 AI and data science start-ups. Through development of tech clusters, namely AI, data science, blockchain and cybersecurity, Cyberport empowers industries across smart city and government, banking and finance, digital entertainment, culture and tourism, healthcare, education and training, property management, construction, transportation and logistics, green environment and more, while hosting Hong Kong's largest FinTech community. Commissioned by the HKSAR Government, Cyberport has implemented proof-of-concept and sandbox schemes, subsidisation for digital tech adoption, industry tech training and start-up incubation, to drive technology R&D, translation and commercialisation, thus propelling digital transformation and intelligent upgrade across industry and society.

Also as "State-level Scientific and Technological Enterprise Incubator" and Hong Kong's key incubator, Cyberport supports entrepreneurs with funding and office space, extensive networks of enterprises, investors, technology corporations and professional services for business growth and expansion to Chinese Mainland and overseas markets, all-round facilitation for landing in Hong Kong, talent attraction and cultivation, ready as a launchpad to take start-ups in any stages of development to the next level.
